8th Annual Meeting of the ACSE

Sunday
August 21
2022

ABOUT

Our Annual Meeting

The ACSE hosts an annual collegial gathering of industry experts, editors, policymakers, technologists, librarians, publishers, and everyone involved in the scholarly publishing ecosystem from around the globe to discover & disseminate the latest innovations, build new connections, discuss important issues of the scholarly publishing community and explore the state of the art solutions.

Like every year, Asian Council of Science Editors will invite industry's leading names to address delegates attending the 2022 ACSE Meeting.

Speakers will share their insights, projections and findings on the evolving publishing industry landscape, its future and new market realities facing Asia's publishing industry.

Don't miss this
